WHERE AVE WHITE WINO AND TAZ BIN!!!!

2003, what a year! I know everyone says that but for me and my family life changed completely.

Just when you think life is settled, nice house, kids, husband, then things change, you end up on your own, homeless with three kids, two dogs and a bird! Hey, put the violins away... things get better!! (not yet) After losing a lot of money on a deal in France, and a car crash, less a dog and a bird, we managed to find a mortgage company silly enough to lend me money!!! We now live in a three up, two down in Rye, yes Rye... with the posh people, its cheap to keep, has a leaky roof, very central for all the pubs! what more can anyone want, oh yea some great runs and a brilliant gym, (lots of talent in there), its very social, I love Rye. We've had lots of luck too, Taz managed some how to pass eight GCSE's, we've been to Cyprus, Paris, Milan oh and I managed to run the Dublin marathon, taking a minute off my pub. Yea, the first half of 2003 was SHIT, but hey the last half has been great, getting better and better all the time. It's all down to determination, self made luck, oh and differently down to support from family and friends, without my three best friends in the world (Taz, Roo, Chay) my kids who have gone through so much and come out sane(pity about their mother)! yea, yea, got your tissues? Well here we are 2004, things looking good, still got the leaking roof! But I'm in the London marathon, after three years of trying! My kids are all in the best school in the area. We've been hashing after eight long months.....what more could one ask for!! Aint life great!!!

So we're back, beware!!!

RUGBY

Given all the recent excitement following England's tremendous victory in the Rugby World Cup, WIZARD was bemoaning the fact that in 12 years I have never watched HIM play rugby. Consequently Isla and I dutifully attended a recent match at New Ash Green Rugby Club. Yes he does play for the 'enemy' and not Vigo.....

However Isla and I arrived a bit late (surprise, surprise!) but managed to see most of the second half.

Well, I was rather taken aback to see Wizards antics during the match as he appeared to spend most of the game with his face up someone's bottom!!!! Oddly enough I don't recall Richard Hill or Lawrence Delallio putting their heads in such a compromising position! (luckily he doesn't bring this little obsession home with him) Wizard also seemed to spend a lot of time with his hands on his hips coughing and spluttering.....something his younger team mates found quite disconcerting.

At the end of the game Wizard muttered something about being number 8. I didn't have the heart to tell him that I think his younger team mates played a little prank on the poor old boy as he was actually wearing number 7 on his back!!!!!!

Still he seemed pleased with himself and said he'd had a 'bloody good game' mind I wasn't quite sure as to what aspect of the game he was referring. God only knows what he does on a Sunday morning when he goes shooting and comes back talking of the "Jessie James Cup." I am beginning to think Jessie is the operative word if his Rugby is anything to go by..

Fortunately I had a camera with me when I went to watch his antics and I'm offering you all the opportunity to win a prize for the best caption to fit the picture. (see next page) Entries to Duracell please.

DISASTROUS NEWS FOR BEER DRINKERS

Yesterday scientists announced to the world the alarming results of a recent analysis that found the presence of female hormones in beer. This comes as a cruel blow to all men. It is advised that if you are male between the ages of 18 and 85 you may need to seek medical assistance to assess your beer consumption.

WARNING: Drinking beer eventually turns men into women.

THE TEST: 100 men were fed 8 pints of beer each within a 1 hour period

THE RESULT: 100% of the men

- 1 Gained weight
- 2 Talked excessively without making sense
- 3 Became overly emotional
- 4 Couldn't drive
- 5 Failed to think rationally
- 6 Argued over nothing
- 7 Had to sit down while urinating
8. Refused to apologise when wrong

.....No further testing is planned.

RUNNING - NOVEMBER 2003 - Crowborough 10k

IRONMAN sets a new club record (Well he was the only club member in attendance!) in an unimpressive time of 74 Mins, coming 2nd to last, narrowly beating an old lady with her shopping. This time is a Personal Worse for Iron Man and will be probably not be beaten as it is so slow! (He was also lapped by the winner!)

SWEATSHOP (Newnham Court, Near Maidstone)

Don't forget that H4 club members can get a 10% discount (5% if you pay by credit card) at Sweatshop. You need to show you club membership card, if you haven't got one of these ask IronMan and he will supply.

SHOOTING

Novice Jessie James Harvel Cup

Rank	Name	Score	No. of Clays	Ratio	Note
1	Big Al	32	50	64
2	Gadge & Beastie Boy	28	60	47
3	Gadge & Beastie Boy	28	60	47
4	Nathan	29	70	41
5	Bendy Wendy	19	50	38
6	Chub	16	50	32
7	Mr Angry	14	50	28	***
8	IronMan	13	50	26
9	Popeye	11	50	22
10	Duracell	2	50	4	**

*** Not a novice Very Angry to be in this league and was moaning like fuck about his leg and how he couldn't shoot properly with a bad leg???

This club could become quite a formidable force in the area, Shoot the enemy and then we all run away, an unbeatable strategy I think.

** I wasn't going to give her any tips was I. I did try to get her to hold the gun the other way round, but she aint that stupid.

When things in your life seem almost too much to handle, when 24 hours in a day are not enough, remember the mayonnaise jar ...and the BEER...

A professor stood before his philosophy class and had some items in front of him. When the class began, wordlessly, he picked up a very large and empty mayonnaise jar and proceeded to fill it with golf balls. He then asked the students if the jar was full. They agreed that it was.

So the professor then picked up a box of pebbles and poured them into the jar. He shook the jar lightly. The pebbles rolled into the open areas between the golf balls. He then asked the students again if the jar was full... They agreed it was.

The professor next picked up a box of sand and poured it into the jar. Of course, the sand filled up everything else. He asked once more if the jar was full. The students responded with an unanimous "yes."

The professor then produced two cans of beer from under the table and poured the entire contents into the jar, effectively filling the empty space between the sand. The students laughed.

"Now," said the professor, as the laughter subsided, "I want you to recognize that this jar represents your life. The golf balls are the important things--your family, your children, your health, your friends, your favourite passions--things that if everything else was lost and only they remained, your life would still be full. The pebbles are the other things that matter like your job, your house, your car. The sand is everything else--the small stuff.

If you put the sand into the jar first," he continued, "there is no room for the pebbles or the golf balls. The same goes for life. If you spend all your time and energy on the small stuff, you will never have room for the things that are important to you. Pay attention to the things that are critical to your happiness. Play with your children. Take time to get medical checkups.

Take your partner out to dinner. Play another 18. There will always be time to clean the house, and fix the disposal.

"Take care of the golf balls first, the things that really matter. Set your priorities. The rest is just sand."

One of the students raised her hand and inquired what the beer represented.

The professor smiled. "I'm glad you asked. It just goes to show you that no matter how full your life may seem, there's always room for a couple of beers."

RUNNING - Canterbury 10 Miles - January 2004

A new club record set by POPEYE - As no one has done it before!
Time 1 Hour 11 Minutes & 43 Seconds (PB) 223 out of 900 runners.

An undulating course (That's a joke two of the hills would give Harvel a run for it's money!) A very competitive race which was represented by most South East running clubs. Once again POPEYE was single handedly flying the flag for HHHH!!!

SOME QUOTES

"I've lost it - Can't find the hole - oh I've got one figure in!"

A voice heard coming from the Juke Box

"That's not worth going down for!" - Duracell

"How much does Mick charge for his nuts" - Head Girl

"What's left over from the whip goes in the box" - IronMan

"I've got to try a big one next time" Sarah (AKA Olive)

H5 UPDATE - SATURDAY 5TH JUNE 2004

7 online line entries and 2 postal already - and it's only January! There have been no entries in the pass until at least March. Those club members intending to run on the day MUST enter in advance!

MR ANGRY has sorted the parking with the local farmer, the medals have been chosen, race numbers ordered, and load more old bollocks that most of you are not interested in.

CONTRIBUTIONS THIS MONTH

Only a few contributions from club members this issue. Hopefully next issue a few of you may make an effort.

A POEM!

Inside the gate in Greenwich Park
my car stands gathering dust
it's driver long departed to his office, that's a must.

Running swiftly down the hill
I quickly find the mode and turn towards the market in Deptford's misty road

Side stepping rush hour traffic
I check my watch and ask will I be late this morning?
to undertake my tasks

Perhaps I'll go through Southwark Park
that will save a bit
why do I do this every day?
it's not just to keep fit

Perhaps because it takes less time?
the petrol is not it
the 'Company' provide the car and all the fuel to fill it

Through Surrey Docks and Rotherhithe
I catch that bike again
I see him every morning
we know each others name

I grit my teeth and carry on past Tower Blocks and shops along the dual carriageway that never seems to stop

In Bermondsey, some people wave
they see me every day some even know me as mad Dave but help me on my way

Eventually, I reach my goal
just off Southwark Street and crawl in to my office block complaining of, sore feet

A quick trip to the shower change and to my desk
I've made it in good time today
so now, a well earned rest

I don't know why the boss permits me to recuperate all day
but at the end of every month
I still receive my pay

When all have left the office
I change and once again
pray that 'en route' home tonight
I won't get caught in rain

The journey feels much longer and tougher is the pain with the prospect of a heavy climb to reach my car again

I press on in to Greenwich and then in to the park
have to hurry up the hill
as now, it's getting dark

When nearly at the top I hear
'Hurry up there mate
I've been waiting over half an hour
To lock the 'Bloody' gate'!

Dave 'El Presidenti' Nash
